County Commissioners to Take Part in Cowtown's Celebrity Weekend

(Sedgwick County, Kansas) –It's Celebrity Weekend at Old Cowtown Museum and local Celebrities Sedgwick County Commissioners Ben Sciortino and Betsy Gwin will take part. Cowtown's Celebrity Weekend will be June 22 – 23. Cowtown is located at 1871 Sim Park Drive, and is open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday –Saturday and 12 p.m. to 5 p.m. on Sunday.

Commissioner Sciortino will be reading cowboy stories to kids on Saturday, June 22 from 10 a.m. to noon.

On Sunday, June 23, Commissioner Gwin will be meeting and greeting the public on the streets of Old Cowtown from noon to 2 p.m.

Celebrity weekend is a time visitors can learn about celebrities from the past and meet celebrities from today.

"I always enjoy attending community events where I can get out and meet citizens of Sedgwick County," said Commissioner Sciortino. "I especially enjoy being able to show off one of the County's great attractions, Old Cowtown Museum."
